

Bitumen
REACH registration status
Date issued: November 2010

ExxonMobil has now completed the registration of all bitumen substances that are currently manufactured by ExxonMobil within the EU.

We currently do not expect to discontinue any bitumen supplies to our customers due to the REACH legislation.

However, should there be any changes in our supply plans as a result of REACH, we will inform our Customers at the earliest possible opportunity.

More general information on REACH and bitumen products can be found on the EUROBITUME website.

ExxonMobil does not provide an Only Representative service for this range of products.

Note

ExxonMobil will not be liable for any damages resulting from the use of or reliance on this information.
