ExxonMobil Basestocks newsletter

September 2023 | Issue 21

Introduction

In this edition of our Taking Stock newsletter, we're excited to share our work with our Singapore Resid Upgrade Project as it progresses toward its 2025 completion. In addition, we're highlighting our new EHC™ 50 and EHC™ 110 base stocks brochure and giving an update on our presence at this year's Independent Lubricant Manufacturers Association (ILMA) Annual Meeting. So we hope you read on and enjoy!

Feature Article

Progress continues on our latest upgrade project for lubricants base stocks in Singapore.

In 2019, we announced a multi-billion-dollar investment in a large-scale expansion project at our integrated manufacturing complex in Jurong, Singapore to meet the growing demand for high-performance lubricants worldwide. Now, we're excited to invite you to take a behind-the-scenes look at our progress with our Singapore Resid Upgrade Project.

Media Spotlight

Ensuring a reliable base stock supply to meet today and tomorrow's challenges, Part I: The old world meets the era of uncertainty

The challenges our industry faces show no sign of abating. Global base stock supplies will remain tight while security and availability remain top-of-mind for manufacturers. To prepare ourselves for the future, we must take a closer look at the nature of these crises. In this two-part article series published in Supply Chain Executive, Alex Mata explains how these crises are affecting our supply chain today.
